'Draw and Write' after each story.

- Review the video on How To Hold A Pencil.
- Practise letter formation on the printouts from: Letter Printing Practice Cards for Each Book. (with interesting descriptions to help them remember)
- Provide multi-levelled opportunities for students to Draw & Write about the topic of each story.

They can dictate their ideas to you as they watch you write their sentence, trace dotted-lined letters, print on their own under a sentence, or print independently by writing personal extensions/endings or complete stories on a blank paper book.
